

The Sun Will Rise (El sol se levantara).

All the words, in all the books in all the world
Could be, all wrong, if they knew what I'd seen and heard
When I, let it ride, everything envelopes me
I go, with the tide, pulls you under, washes you clean
And I want to be there with you....

Time it stands, a measurement of yours and mine.
Till death, us parts, only exists in your mind
When I, let it slide, the universe expands for me
Time, on your side, starting over living it free.
And I want to be there with you

The sun will rise! Pulls you under, sets you free
The sun will rise! El sol se levan-ta-ra
The sun will rise!

BREAK

Time expands and life's evolving
You and me so self absorbed
Meditate on your surrounding Never sure of what you will find

El sol se levan-ta-ra
and I want to be there with you
Yes I want to be there with you
And I want to see this with you!
The sun will rise
Pulls you under, sets you free

The sun will rise! Starting over, living free
The sun will rise! El sol se, levan-ta-ra
The sun will rise!

The sun will rise, The sun will rise, The sun will rise
